Spring Term
28th April 2023

Reminder - We will be closed on Monday 1st May for the bank holiday.

King Charles' Coronation Celebration

On Friday 5th May, we will be celebrating the King's Coronation. The children can come into school wearing red/white and blue colours representing our British flag. The children will also be able to enjoy a special party dinner next Friday for £1 which includes a cheese sandwich, sausage roll, chicken goujons, cucumber sticks, crisps, iced bun & blackcurrant juice. During the afternoon, all children will enjoy a range of activities relating to the King's Coronation.

Commemorative Coins

Thank you to the Bridlington Town Council who visited school on Thursday and kindly bought all the children a commemorative coin to celebrate the Coronation of King Charles next week.

Summer Reading Bingo

Children should now have brought home a Summer Reading Bingo Challenge to complete this half term. There are lots of Dojo points to be gained as well as a chance to win prizes if they complete all the activities. This can be used as part of the three reads that all children are encouraged to do each week. We are hoping all children will enjoy taking part in these fun reading challenges. Please contact your class teacher if you do not have one.

Year 6 SATs reminders

All Year 6 children will be taking their tests for Reading, Maths and Grammar during the week of 9th—12th May. Each morning the children can come into school at 08:30am where we will be serving sausage sandwiches and a juice drink before the start of each day.

How do you learn best?

In the news this week

An educational television programme for young people in Afghanistan has been launched by the BBC. The TV show has been created to help children, who have been banned from going to school in the country, and is aimed at children aged 11 to 16. The Taliban group, who took over the country in 2021, have stopped girls over the age of 11 from attending school. The weekly programme is called Dars, which means 'lesson' in Afghanistan's official languages.

This Week's Useful Vocabulary

Banned – Officially or legally prohibited (forbidden). The TV show has been created to help children, who have been banned from going to school in the country, and is aimed at children aged 11 to 16.

Launched – Started or set in motion. An educational television programme for young people in Afghanistan has been launched by the BBC.

Privilege – A special right or advantage. Having access to school, books and other opportunities to learn is a privilege.

Official – Approved by the government or by someone in authority. The weekly programme is called Dars, which means lesson in Afghanistan's official languages.

Reliant – Needing a particular thing or person to continue, work correctly or succeed. Can you think of any times when you have been unable to learn at school and have been reliant on other methods?

Taken for granted – Fail to properly appreciate something. Receiving an education is something that should not be taken for granted.

Quad Kids

On Tuesday, 16 pupils walked to Headlands School to take part in a sports competition called Quad Kids. The pupils participated in groups of four and competed in four different events. These were; long jump, long distance running, vortex throwing and a sprint. All the pupils were well behaved. Well done to all involved!

Summer 1 Curriculum Overviews and Knowledge Organisers

Curriculum Overviews and Knowledge Organisers for each year group have been sent out via email. You can also find these on the school website. These overviews show you what the children will be learning about during the Summer1 Term. Please discuss the Knowledge Organisers with your child on a regular basis in order to remember key facts and information. If you require a paper copy then please contact your child's class teacher or the school office.
