In the news this week

A study, conducted by the government and backed by the Money and Pensions Service, has estimated that around 5.4 million children in the UK do not have the money skills they will need in adulthood. Less than half of children and teenagers aged 7 to 17 have received a meaningful financial education, according to the results. It also found that a third of children recall learning about money in school and finding it useful, and nearly a quarter received key elements of financial education at home.

Things to talk about at home ...

- > What is your first memory of money?
- > Share your own experiences of money.
- > What do you think is the best way to learn about money and why?

Online Safety

It has come to the attention of school staff that some children have been accessing inappropriate material online at home. Please ensure you check your child's activity online in order to protect them from any harmful material. More information on keeping safe online can be found on

Online safety: top tips

Going online is a huge part of most young people's lives so it's important to talk to them about online safety. Here's our tips to get you started.

Chat to them about what they like to do online

The best way to find out what your child is doing online is to talk to them and have regular conversations so that online safety is part of everyday discussion. Ask them open-ended questions like 'What's your favourite game or app to play on?'.

- Listen to what they have to say and show an interest. They could give you a demo of their favourite app or show you their favourite YouTube or TikTok account.
- They will probably be able to teach you things you don't know! This will also give you an opportunity to chat about any safety settings they might already have in place.
- Regular conversations with your child will encourage them to come to you if they ever need support or advice.

Talk about who they are in contact with online

There are lots of different ways that children can talk to people online – messaging apps, on social media, and less obvious ways such as chat on online games. Talk to your child about who they are talking to and what they are sharing with them.

- Use settings to help limit who can contact your child.
- Remind your child that they shouldn't share personal information with people they don't know online.
- Let your child know they can come to you or another trusted adult if any conversation makes them feel uncomfortable.

Help manage what they see and do online

Parental controls and privacy settings can help you manage how your child spends time online and help to keep them safe.

- Device settings – manage things like location sharing, screen time and in-app purchases. Most tech and gaming companies have dedicated pages to support with setting these up.
- App or game settings – in-app tools that can help to keep your child's account private and manage who they're talking to. You can normally find information on these in account settings or directly on the platforms website.
- Mobile or network provider settings – help to manage browsing access and stop your child from visiting inappropriate sites or downloading apps that aren't suitable. Contact your mobile or broadband provider for more information about setting this up.

Make sure to talk to your child first before implementing any new settings and explain to them how they help to keep them safe.

Remember it's ok to ask for help!

Remember you don't have to be an online safety expert – that's our job! We're here to help, with resources and advice to help support you and your child.

If your child asks you a question you don't know the answer to, or speaks to you about a negative experience they had online, here are some of things you could do:

- Visit the NSPCC online safety hub: nspcc.org.uk/online-safety
- Call the NSPCC helpline 0808 800 5000 to speak to an advisor
- Ask another parent
- Speak to your child's teacher
- If your child needs more support, they can contact Childline: childline.org.uk

Panathlon Bowling

On Thursday, five Year 5 children took part in the Panathlon Ten Pin Bowling competition at the Bridlington Forum. We faced stiff competition from nine other schools, however Burlington took first place and came back with the trophy and individual medals. Noah also scooped top scorer earning him a framed certificate. They now go through to the final at Hollywood Bowl next Spring. Well done to everybody who took part!

Children In Need

On Friday 17th November we will be celebrating Children In Need. Children can come dressed in as much yellow as they can, spots or both! In return for a donation.

Charities Aim:

To improve the lives of thousands of children by ensuring that their childhood is safe, happy and secure and to be able to give every child the chance to reach their full potential in life.

Quay Academy Science Show

This week, pupils- including our Alien Art competition winners- attended a brilliant show at Quay academy which included lots of exciting and interesting science. It was a great event which children enjoyed with their families, as part of our Ogden Trust Partnership. Well done to competition winners. It was a great event.

Fun Friday

Thank you to those who took part in both Fun Fridays on the 27th October + today. We have raised a total of £294.30 so far and received some fabulous 'bring a bottle' + 'bring chocolate' gifts for the Christmas Fair.

Additional Golf Lessons

Ivan is a qualified PVA Golf Professional who delivers golf lessons to pupils on a Friday after school.

He has an additional Golf activity for keen pupils which will take place at Bridlington Belvedere Golf Club.

He is looking to offer a Junior Golf Taster evening using the fantastic indoor virtual Golf simulator, the aim is to enable the pupil's to visit the Golf Club, sample the sport and to hopefully become regular Golfers at club level.

There are 3 x 1 hour Taster sessions available on Tuesday the 21st of November at Bridlington Belvedere Golf Club.

4.30pm till 5.30pm

5.30pm till 6.30pm

6.30pm till 7.30pm

Places are limited to 10 players per session (with a cost of £3 paid on the day).

All the equipment is provided, simply book a place and come along.

For any keen pupils who wish to continue, there will be a follow on 3 week coaching course:

28th November + 5th 12th December

5.30pm till 6.30pm new group 1

6.30pm till 7.30pm new group 2

Ivan can take the bookings directly via calls or texts to his mobile
