Picture News

In the news this week

British litter-pickers have become world champions in the litter-picking World Cup (also known as the SpoGomi World Cup) after sifting through nearly 60 kilograms of rubbish in the Japanese capital to win the first-ever contest of its kind. The British team, made up of Sarah Parry and brothers Alexander and Jonathan Winship, beat teams from 20 other nations from around the world. SpoGomi is named after a combination of 'sport' and 'gomi', the Japanese word for rubbish. Each team is equipped with protective gloves, metal tongs and waste bags, and allocated an area of five square kilometres (nearly two square miles) in the busy Shibuya district of Tokyo, to collect as much litter as possible.

Things to talk about at home ...

- Share your experience of litter in your local area. Is it a problem? Have you ever been litter-picking?
- What do you believe rubbish is? Ask others at home. Do you all think the same?

This weeks useful vocabulary

Allocated – Given and allocated an area of five square kilometres (nearly two square miles) in the busy Shibuya district of Tokyo.

Combination – Mixture. SpoGomi is named after a combination of 'sport' and 'gomi', the Japanese word for rubbish.

Dispose – Throw away. What are some of the different ways we can dispose of things we no longer need?

Equipped – Provided with equipment. Each team is equipped with protective gloves, metal tongs and waste bags.

Outperforming – Being more successful. They won with a score of 9,046.1 points, collecting 57.27kg (126.26 lbs) of rubbish, outperforming the Japanese hosts, who came second.

Sifting – to examine thoroughly to find something or to separate what is useful from what is not. British litter-pickers have become world champions in the litter-picking World Cup after sifting through nearly 60 kilograms of rubbish in the Japanese capital.

Christmas Fair 2023

Thank you to those who attended our Christmas Fair, we managed to raise a total of just over £2,000 as you will know this will help to subsidise the cost of the Pantomime this year 'Beauty and the Beast'. A huge thank you also to the staff that worked tirelessly to pull off such a great event.

Burlington School Choir

On Wednesday, the school choir performed a selection of Christmas songs to the residents of 'Applegarth'.

Well done choir, especially those who sang a solo!

School Dinners

We will be contacting all parents to inform them of their child's lunch balance next week. Please ensure your balance is cleared before the end of term, any high or long term balances will be referred to County Hall's collection department.

Also please be aware that the cost of school dinners will increase by 10p only to £2.30 from 01.01.24.

Clubs - Reminder

There will be no clubs taking place next week (week commencing 18th December) please arrange alternative pick up arrangements.
