Asda Cashpot

We have signed up for the Asda Cashpot for Schools to help generate some money for our school. All you need to do is opt in on your Asda app (if you have one) and pick our school and then each time you shop a percentage will go into a cashpot for school. You will still get your own cashpot as well. Thank you

Asda Rewards Cashpot for Schools

Cashpot for Schools Terms & Conditions Asda Rewards terms & Conditions

1

Download and sign up to the Asda Rewards app

Opt into the Cashpot for Schools campaign and select a specific primary school or select 'Schools in Need'.

2

Shop in store across Asda and George, or online at Asda.com

Asda will donate a percentage of your shop to your chosen school each time you shop and scan.

3

Asda does the rest

The money raised will be donated through Parentkind to schools to spend on what they need most. This won't affect your own Cashpot earn.

Once opted in and selected a school, we will add £1 to your chosen schools Cashpot to help get them started.

Each school will get an additional £50 added to their Cashpot, after at least one customer has shopped and scanned their Rewards app.

In the news this week

Book publishing company, Penguin Random House UK, has revealed a new book vending machine at Linlithgow Academy, near Edinburgh, Scotland. The machine gives the pupils access to more than seventy different books from Penguin's 'Lit in Colour' reading lists. The reading lists, set up around four years ago, are updated each year and aim to make works by writers of colour more visible and accessible in schools.

Things to talk about at home ...

- > Would you like to see a book vending machine in school? Do you think it would be popular?
- > What types of books do you like to read, and who are some of your favourite authors? Ask others at home about their reading preferences.
- > Do you feel it's important to know about the author of a book you read? Is it important to you to read books by authors from different backgrounds and with different experiences? What do others at home think?

Blurb - A short description or summary of a book, usually found on the back cover. Is it to do with the cover, the blurb, the author, something else?

Formative - Something that helps shape or influence the way a person grows and develops. It's vital that the books we read in our formative years reflect the rich diversity of the society we live in.

Innovative - Using new and creative ideas to different way. Its goal is finding innovative and practical ways to, 'give schools the support and tools they need'.

Legacy - Something that a person or group leaves behind after they are gone that continue to influence or impact others. The impact or legacy they'd like it to leave.

Poet laureate - An official poet chosen by a country, state, or city to write poems for special events and occasions. Jackie Kay, a former poet laureate of Scotland, by the book vending machine at Linlithgow Academy.

Vital - Very important or necessary. It's vital that the books we read in our formative years reflect the rich diversity of the society we live in.

Book Display

This month Burlington Junior School are enjoying delving into the Halloween spirit by reading lots of our new spooky books.

The display has been designed by Mrs Baxter and the school librarians for pupils/visitors to enjoy.

Pick up/club cancellations

Please be reminded that we do not currently offer a wrap around childcare service at our school.

We will always try to give plenty of notice if clubs cancel. Please ensure you have alternative family/friends to hand should a club get cancelled.

Clubs are for enjoyment and have not been put into place for after school childcare.

Parents Evening

Please contact the school office if you wish to book a parents evening appointment on:

Burlington Junior Reading Newsletter

As we enter Halloween season, we turn our attention to books filled with suspense, monsters and all things spooky...

The Beast and the Bethany

Meet Bethany, a rough and tumble orphan recently adopted by the young and fabulously wealthy Ebenezer Tweezer. He's a bit of a push-over, so Bethany is rather happy.

What she doesn't realise is that Ebenezer is, in fact, several hundred years old, kept young by a fearsome beast that lives in his attic. He feeds the beast whatever it wishes in order to remain young and wealthy, and the beast has just asked for a child to eat...

A fabulously funny story, filled with excellent characters who are all rather charming... in their own special way.

Spooky factor: 1/5

Star rating: 4/5

The Doll Twin

An eerie, compelling story that follows young war-orphan Una as she's adopted, moving into a house which belonged to a creepy dollmaker. While there, Una meets Ani, the dollmaker's greatest creation.

The whole story is filled with an undercurrent of tension and many uncanny moments that make you question what will happen next, and just who the antagonist of the tale is...

Spooky factor: 3/5

Star rating: 4/5

Stitch

The story follows Stitch, a Frankenstein'd monster who has never seen the outside world before today, existing only in the castle with his creator and his fellow monster, Henry. That is, until a visitor arrives on the doorstep and, with the creator sleeping, Stitch has no choice but to answer the door.

It's a fantastic adventure story filled with themes of friendship and enjoyable twists, and challenges what a 'person' and a 'monster' truly are.

Spooky factor: 3/5

Star rating: 4.5

The Haunting of Aveline Jones

The first in a trio of books, the Haunting of Aveline Jones is a superb read for those who love spine-tingling terror and books filled to the brim with suspense.

Definitely the kind of book that makes you want to leave the lights on after reading it!

Spooky factor: 5/5

No Place for Monsters

This book might look like a Diary of the Wimpy Kid at the first flick through the pages, but it's a fantastic child-friendly horror story, in which two unlikely friends face down their worst fears in order to stop their small town - and themselves - from disappearing.

Spooky factor: 5/5

Recently Released:

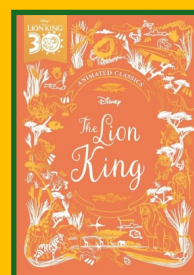

Loki, a Bad God's Guide to Making Enemies (book 4)

The latest in Loki mischief, Louie Stowell's fourth Loki book is a triumph in entertainment, filled with the usual levels of mischievous trickery one can expect from the title character. A definite must read if you enjoy the Diary of a Wimpy Kid series.

Burlington Pupils Recommend...

The Lion King is a 5 out of 5 star book because it is just really good, my favourite movie and because I love the description of the savannah. I like best that there are illustrations of all the animals and pride rock; it makes me smile!

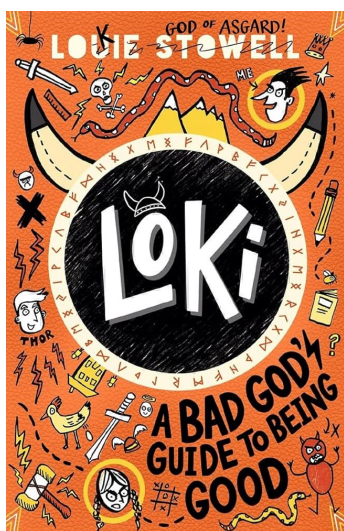

- Ivy, Year 5

Read recently by Class 7...

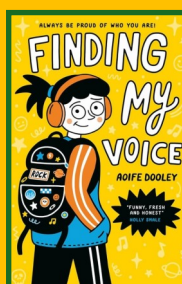

I really, really loved Loki, I want to read the second one! I just loved all of Loki, it was so good!

- Ivy

I loved it. The lies were the best because the book said 'lie detected' and it was amazing that it knew he was lying and it was a funny book.

- Emily

Finding my Voice is a 5 out of 5 star book because it made me feel calm when I was frustrated. What I like is it was very caring about this girl.

- Scarlett, Year 5

I enjoyed it a lot. I think the best bit was the frost giant fight!

- Ollie

Class average rating:

The Last Chance

Hotel is a 4 out of 5 star book because it is a bit boring in parts, but I like it when Seth was paying attention to the clues to solve who committed the murder.

- Milania, Year 5

Coming soon:

- The next 'Diary of a Wimpy Kid' (October)
- The next 'Bunny vs. Monkey' (October)
